2016 CATHOLIC TIMES LENTEN FISH FRY GUIDE
Lent is almost upon us. The final Mardi Gras parties are under way. In a few days, Ash Wednesday will be here, ushering in a season of repentance and sacrifice. But it does not mean we will be totally without good times.

One of the great parts of Lent is the return of that wonderful Catholic institution, the Friday fish fry. Since you are going to give up meat every Friday, this is a great way to get something extra out of that discipline. The fish fry is a chance to not only make a personal sacrifice, but also strengthen your bonds with your spiritual community by building the strength of the parish through the fellowship. That is really important.

You will get some great food and a chance to not only make a personal sacrifice, but also strengthen your bonds with your spiritual community by building the strength of the parish through this weekly meal, you are joining other Catholics at these weekly gatherings.

By spending time with your fellow parishioners at this weekly meal, you are building the strength of the parish through fellowship. That is really important. But you can also benefit by visiting more fellowship. That is really important.
