Franciscan rector of Carey shrine named bishop of Lexington, Kentucky

Pope Francis has appointed Father John Stowe, OFM Conv., as Bishop of Lexington, Kentucky. He is pro-

vocal of the Our Lady of Consolation Franciscan Convent Province of the Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation since 2011.

In September 2001, he was ordained a priest and was incardinated to serve the Archdiocese of St. Louis in Missouri. He served as a seminarian for five years, and was named general in 2006.

In his new role as bishop, Father Stowe will focus on leading the diocese through the Holy Year of Mercy, which begins on Dec. 8, 2015. He will serve as an adjunct bishop in the diocese, helping to coordinate the efforts of the priests and deacons who serve in the diocese.

"Jesus wept." This verse from the Gospel according to John is the shortest verse in the entire Bible. But it is also one of the most important. It is typical of Jesus, who weeps

the time of His Passion. He is moved by the suffering of the earth's needs. He weeps

because His friend Lazarus

has died, and He weeps before Lazarus in the dead.

Later, Jesus began His famous last journey to Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.

But before He leaves, Jesus weeps

over Jerusalem, which looks out across the valley of Kedron to see Jerusalem, and again He weeps. He weeps over Jerusalem, but for all of mankind.

This is Jesus, a man like us. But He is also God Almighty, the One Who made all of heavens and earth, who has unlimited power and reigns over the entire universe. How can we be invited to be rescued from sin? He weeps because He loves the creation of which we are a part. He has places for repentance, He has a heart to forgive me again and again.

is remain faithful to His Word, His love, and His forgiveness. The wonder, awe, and beauty of this is that yes, He will! All we need to do is not to concern when we die, even to the point of being perturbed. The more common meaning of the word is “perturbed.” How blessed we will be if He shows us the same love and concern in His humanity? We cannot imagine what that would be enough food on hand. The church will be open for prayer during the entire vigil and a place of quiet where the faithful can rest. The church is open and the usual schedule of offices is suspension. Sixth-grade students at New Philadelphia Tuscarawas Central Catholic High School received awards from New Philadelphia Post 1445 of the Vietnam Veterans of Foreign Wars. A $2,000 scholarship went to Alex Milleman for placing sixth in the state in the VFW Voice of Democracy competition. It was the first time in 35 years anyone from Tuscarawas County has placed at the state level in the event. Milleman also won local and district honors in the contest. Max Fragasse was awarded a $750 scholarship as runner-up in the post’s female student division. Fragasse, a junior at New Philadelphia Central Catholic High School, is a member of the school’s Academic Team and National Honor Society.

Several seniors from New Philadelphia Tuscarawas Central Catholic High School organized a drive to collect food for the Little Sisters of the Poor at 750 Gould Road, is announcing the beginning of a new DVD ministry designed to help with the healing process for men and women who have undergone the pain resulting from divorce.

The first session of “The Catholic’s Divorce Survival Guide,” a 12-week DVD ministry designed to help with the healing process for men and women who have undergone the pain resulting from divorce. The first session of “The Catholic’s Divorce Survival Guide” will begin at 7 p.m. on Thursday, April 7. The 12-week program features 30-minute videos each week that cover topics including shock, denial, anger, grief, guilt, forgiveness, money, the courts, the children, dating, spirituality, remarriage or staying single, and much more. ANNUAL CARRY THE CROSS HIKE

The annual Carry the Cross hike sponsored by Wilderness Outreach will take place on Holy Saturday, April 4, at Clear Creek Metro Park, just off U.S. 33 near the border of Fairfield and Harrison counties. Carry the Cross is a 12-mile Stations of the Cross hike for men. A cross constitutes each of the 14 stations, approximately 10 feet long with a seven-foot cross beam, will be carried on the journey.

Those taking part in the hike should bring a day pack with two to three liters of water, roof gear if appropriate: During the hike, silent meditation on Jesus’ Passion is encouraged. Spoken prayers such as the Rosary, the prayer to St. Michael, and the Ave Maria are also encouraged. Participants do not have to walk the entire 12 miles.

Last year, a replica cross was presented to Columbus St. Patrick Church for having the most men on the hike. Each year, this honor will be bestowed on the parish with the most participants.

Each year, 50 to 60 laymen from several parishes throughout the archdiocese have participated. The hike provides a way for fathers and sons and brothers to walk together in groups to engage and bond with one another in a masculine, spiritual, and physical challenge.

The starting location will be in the parking lot and shelter house at the Burley Hamilton area at the western end of the park. Men are encouraged to arrive by 7:30 a.m. Morning Prayer will be held at 7:45, with the hike beginning at 8 and lasting until about 2 p.m.

Three-dimensional atom models

Sixth-grade students at Hilliard St. Brendan School have studied the scientific method models made over the years of atoms. The models have changed over time as more has been discovered about atoms. The students created a three-dimensional atom model as an element they studied, based on a model introduced by scientist Niels Bohr in 1913. The students discovered that the best way to view an atom is to make a model of it, that protons and neutrons are located in the nucleus, and that electrons are located outside of the nucleus at various energy levels or shells. Pictured with their atom models are (from left) Ava Baker, Allie Maziarz, Victoria Lorenc, and Elise Peters.
The 12 Promises given by Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque from 1673 to 1675 for those who venerate His Sacred Heart:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state in life.
2. I will give up my life for them, if it be necessary, to save them from their offenses.
3. I will deliver them from the clutches of Hell, if they valiantly persevere, and if no one has the power to deliver them.
4. I will become their advocate with my Father in Heaven, if I find faithful persons on earth to propagate this devotion to me.
5. I will pour abundant blessings on all their undertakings.
6. Sinners shall find in My Heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Tepid souls shall become fervent.
8. Dead sins shall be pardoned, with the promise of a foretaste of glory above.
9. I will make all the graces necessary for the salvation of the soul from death to eternity.
10. I will give each soul who makes this promise the Holy Spirit, the author of all virtues.
11. Those who propagate this devotion shall have their name written in My Heart,
12. I will give to priests the power to touch the most hardened hearts.
Mount Carmel Health System is investing more than $700 million in its people-centered care strategy in central Ohio. The investment includes major projects at three Mount Carmel campuses: Mount Carmel Grove City, Mount Carmel West, and Mount Carmel East.

“These projects are part of our work to move health care delivery forward in our role as the region’s value leader in delivering better health and better care for an affordable cost,” said Claus von Zychlin, president and chief executive officer of Mount Carmel Health System. “A $355 million investment in Mount Carmel Grove City will expand the one-year-old facility to a full-service hospital in 2018. This will be the first hospital south of the Interstate 270 corridor in Columbus area and will greatly expand access to care for a rapidly growing part of our community,” added Sean Mckee, president and chief executive officer of Mount Carmel Grove City.

The revitalized Mount Carmel West campus will focus on primary, urgent, and emergent care, and will include an emergency department open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. A day hospital will open for outpatients with community stakeholders to identify opportunities to meet the needs of the residents in Franklin and surrounding areas. This includes the addition of 16 new private patient rooms, in addition to the original 106 private patient rooms. In addition, the original 1906 tower will be completely renovated to provide 128 all-private patient rooms. The completed Mount Carmel West campus will feature 210 private rooms and seven floors of clinical services, including inpatient and outpatient surgery, intensive care, neurology and palliative care, and expanded emergency services. The five-story office building will include a number of services including comprehensive outpatient oncology, women’s health, maternal fetal medicine, and other physician offices. The campus will also be the new headquarters for Mount Carmel’s graduate medical education.

“The residents of Grove City and surrounding communities have long considered Mount Carmel their health care home. The first phase of Mount Carmel Grove City opened just last year, and has been embraced by the residents of Grove City and the surrounding communities in the region to an even greater extent than expected,” said Jean McMakin, president and chief operating officer of Mount Carmel West. “This expansion will meet the growing need for health care in one of the fastest growing parts of our community.”

Mount Carmel Grove City will maintain its existing emergency and outpatient services and Mount Carmel West will also continue to serve the residents of Columbus in the community expects during this time. After construction is completed in Grove City, Mount Carmel West’s inpatient operations will transfer to Grove City and the West campus will undergo a $46 million transformation.

The newly-150-year-old Mount Carmel West campus in the Franklin County suburb of Columbus will be transformed into a health and educational campus which will be the centerpiece of a shared revitalization effort for a stronger, healthier, and more sustainable community.

Mount Carmel will be working directly with community leaders to identify opportunities to meet the needs of the residents in Franklin and surrounding areas. This includes the addition of community green space, recreational space, family resource centers, and community health programs.

When complete, Mount Carmel East will be a nearly 400-bed, all-private-room facility that will be home to the most contemporary clinical services and patient conveniences in the region. Mount Carmel East has a long history of delivering high-quality care as a downtown hospital for patients in central Ohio,” said Bunko Reiner, president and chief operating officer of Mount Carmel East. “This investment will allow us to build on those strengths by providing enhancements to our services and the experience of our patients.”

Mount Carmel continues to lead the transformation of health care delivery in central Ohio through a new focus on prevention and wellness, improved care coordination, population health management, and integrated care capabilities targeted at keeping people healthy.

In delivering these capabilities, the health system has partnered with providers, physicians, and other providers such as The Ohio State University’s Wexner Medical Center.

Even with an increased focus on wellness rather than just treating patients when they are sick, we understand that there will always be times when the most modern and clinically capable inpatient services are required by our patients,” von Zychlin said. “These projects will further shape Mount Carmel’s services to better provide the right care at the right time and in right locations for the residents of central Ohio.”

Through this combined investment of more than $700 million, Mount Carmel will continue to lead efforts to deliver people-centered care in central Ohio and follow the tradition of innovation which began when the Sisters of the Holy Cross founded Mount Carmel West in 1866.

“The sisters had the courage to be forward thinking and evolve the services that they offered as the community’s needs changed. This vision has been a hallmark of Mount Carmel’s delivery of high-quality, people-centered care,” von Zychlin said. “These important investments and our ongoing population health initiative will help us bring our people-centered care delivery in central Ohio and stay true to the forefront that the sisters had when they began and advanced our health ministry.”
If we are fortunate enough to make it to heaven, one of the things that I think will surprise us is that we made life harder than it had to be. It is a great example of what Jesus meant. Lent is a time for introspection, making sacrifices, and helping others. This isn’t new, but it is one of the easiest things we can do. We can’t ever see the trees for the forest.

For example, I look back at my coaching days. When the team got too far off the mark, not only did team members dig deeper to find what they needed to do, but they knew their teammates would assist them in getting better. I have talked to enough successful athletes to know that the same applies to you. Stay true to the hard work and not get discouraged. If you look at how many of the faithful feel alone and with no one to help or remind people to get in shape and look their best. Between books, personal trainers, and videos, this is a multibillion-dollar-a-year business. There is nothing wrong with eating right and looking after your body. It is actually biblical to do so. However, it is also biblical to know and practice your faith.

Holy Week is a time of reflection and remembrance. Why not be ready for Holy Week by first spending more time in prayer and reflection over this week to prepare us for the upcoming events. If we are fortunate enough to make it to heaven, the afterlife will be much harder than it is here. We need to make the right choices and prepare ourselves for the greater life.

On this day, we will take a look at the “Tide” and see how it has evolved over the years. The tidal patterns are influenced by the moon’s position in the sky, which affects the gravitational pull on the Earth. This pull causes the tides to rise and fall, creating a natural rhythm that we can observe and study.

The tidal patterns can have a significant impact on marine life, as well as on human activities such as fishing and boating. Understanding the tidal patterns can help us plan our activities and stay safe in the water.

However, it is important to note that the tidal patterns are not always predictable. Natural events such as storms and tsunamis can cause temporary changes in the tidal patterns, which can have a significant impact on the local community. Therefore, it is important to always be prepared and to stay informed about the tidal patterns in your area.

In conclusion, the tidal patterns are a fascinating natural phenomenon that we can observe and study. By understanding the tidal patterns, we can plan our activities and stay safe in the water. However, it is important to always be prepared and to stay informed about the tidal patterns in your area.

Originally from Chile, Glenda is a popular artist who lives near Barcelona, Spain. She’s well-known as a writer and singer of contemporary music in Spanish who evangelizes with music. Many people remember her from World Youth Day 2002 in Toronto, where she sang her song Nada Es Imposible para Ti (Nothing Is Impossible for You) while Pope St. John Paul II and other priests distributed Communion during the closing Mass.

Glenda, a member of the Order of Consecrated Virgins, has a degree in theology from the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome and a degree in psychology from the University of Salamanca, Spain. She founded the nonprofit organization Consuelo a mi Pueblo (Comfort My People) to further her mission. Her ministry takes her to underdeveloped nations where she gives free concerts and makes her CDs available to those who cannot afford them.

Admission to her Columbus concert will be $20. Tickets are required for everyone aged 3 and older. For more information, call (614) 597-6124 or (614) 348-4026 or the Parroquia Santa Cruz office at (614) 784-9732.

A NIGHT OF WORSHIP

Parroquia Santa Cruz of Columbus will present “A Night of Worship” with Hermana Glenda at Westerville St. Paul Church, 313 N. State St., from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Saturday, April 25. Doors will open at 5 p.m.

The Diocese of Columbus Catholic Schools Honor Choir concert, with the theme “I Will Rise,” will take place at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 25, at Gahanna St. Matthew Church, 687 Havens Corners Road.

This program, in its eighth year, invites students from all diocesan schools to participate in a one-day choral event. More than 230 singers from 15 schools will perform, representing diocesan grade schools, Columbus Bishop Watterson High School, and Ohio Dominican University. The guest conductor will be Dr. Sandra Mathias (pictured), professor emerita at Capital University, where she served as professor of vocal music education and director of The Kodaly Institute for 29 years. She is also director emerita of the Columbus Children’s Choir and artistic director for 25 years. She has served as guest conductor for the Georgia All-State Middle School Treble Chorus, the DAKE National Children’s Choir, the NYACDA Children’s Honor Chorus, and several festivals throughout the Midwest.

In addition to the honor choir performance, individual selections will be performed by ensembles including St. Matthew School’s youth and bell choir, Watterson’s concert choir, and the Ohio Dominican University choirs. To order a copy of this year’s performance, go to http://soundwaves.org, and search “Columbus.”

This event was developed by diocesan music teachers as an effort to give their singers an opportunity to perform challenging music in a large ensemble setting. Singers prepare the music under the guidance of their music teachers and assemble for one afternoon rehearsal and evening performance.

Sacred music of all styles from Renaissance to classical and gospel to contemporary will be performed during this celebration of song in an effort to demonstrate the schools’ unity and Catholic heritage through music. This year, song selections will reflect the Feast of the Annunciation and the birth of Christ. A free-will offering will be collected for the Holy Family Soup Kitchen.
